

Zero Hunger: Make your pupils consider potential solutions to world hunger by using skills such as critical thinking and problem solving, creativity and collaboration.

Responsible Production and Consumption Help your pupils develop skills in digital literacy, critical thinking, creativity and collaboration through the study of responsible production and consumption.

Gender Equality Develop your pupils' core skills through the study of gender equality.

Quality Education Develop your pupils' core skills through themes of inclusivity and lifelong opportunities for all.

Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions Empower pupils to use their voice, express their views and have their opinions taken seriously through a creative process.

Zero Waste Help your pupils develop core skills by exploring issues and solutions to protect our climate and environment.

Decent Work and Economic Growth How social entrepreneurs have built enterprises which make a profit, but also improve the lives of vulnerable communities around the world.

Affordable, Clean Energy for All - Develop their knowledge of renewable energy through maths, geography, ICT and other subjects.